Build the Product That Fits

Choose the format that serves the real audience. Art is one possible tool, not the required outcome.

CHOOSE ONE FORMAT

☐ ARTWORK

☐ LETTER

☐ COLLECTION PLAN

☐ PRESENTATION

☐ DESIGN CHANGE

AUDIENCE

Who can respond or decide?

VERIFIED FACT

What will you say in your own words?

CLEAR REQUEST

What can the audience actually do?

1 DRAFT, SKETCH, OR MAP THE STEPS

Use this space for the format you chose. Label the part that gives the audience a clear next action.

ROLES: _____ ADULT CHECK: _____ SHARE DATE: _____

Adult approval comes before public contact, collections, fundraising, or changes to a shared space.

1 OUTPUT

What we delivered

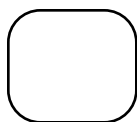

2 RESPONSE

What came back

3 CHANGE / UNKNOWN

What changed - or not known yet

NEXT CHECK: _____

Teacher Quick Start: From Concern to Action

Do not copy this page. Open the source, model one move, then hand out only the student pages needed (1-2).

READY

One pack per group. In Student Action Studio, select one ready pathway with two direct sources and three starting actions, including one tempting mismatch.

MODEL ONE MOVE - ABOUT 60 SECONDS

Read the current request before scoring: 'A poster might look good, but I cannot give it a 2 unless it serves this need and audience.'

1 RUN IT

1

Record two sources and the current request.

2

Score three real actions.

3

Choose the fitting product format.

4

Approve, deliver, and separate output, response, and change.

DEBRIEF

What evidence guided the action? Why does this format fit its audience? What is an output, and what would count as change?

COLLECT / NOTICE

Collect source notes, three /6 scores, one approved product plan, and a dated output-response-change follow-up.

CARE

No student discloses a personal experience or speaks for a group. Adults handle permission, privacy, public contact, fundraising, and promises.
