

Four Moves, Many Safe Choices

Scenario: someone makes fun of a student's name. Do not reenact it. Build and justify a safe route.

5. TELL A TRUSTED ADULT.

Get adult help and follow-through.

1. THAT'S NOT OKAY.

Say it clearly and briefly.

7. CHANGE THE BEHAVIOUR.

An apology alone is not enough.

3. WANT TO SIT OR WORK WITH ME?

Offer support; let the person choose.

6. WRITE FACTS FOR AN ADULT.

Keep notes private; do not post or share.

2. NAMES DESERVE RESPECT.

Stop the comment without debating.

8. ADULTS CHECK BACK.

Support the person harmed and monitor change.

4. ARE YOU OKAY? WHAT DO YOU NEED?

Listen without asking them to teach.

WRITE CARD NUMBERS UNDER EACH MOVE. MORE THAN ONE SAFE ORDER IS POSSIBLE.

INTERRUPT

SUPPORT

REPORT

REPAIR

If interrupting feels unsafe, move to support and adult help. Adults are responsible for follow-through.

Pocket Response Guide

Choose words you could really use. Fold into quarters if helpful. You never have to confront someone alone.

INTERRUPT

ONE SAFE SENTENCE

If it feels safe, what could you say briefly?

Try: 'That's not okay.'

SUPPORT

ONE CONSENT-BASED OFFER

What could you offer without taking over?

Try: 'Want to work with me?'

REPORT

TRUSTED ADULT + FACTS

Who will you tell? Which facts matter?

At Walnut Road, I can tell: _____ or _____

REPAIR

CHANGE + CHECK-BACK

What changes, and who checks again?

Teacher Quick Start: Interrupt, Support, Report, Repair

Do not copy this page. Open the source, model one move, then hand out only the student pages needed (1-2).

READY

One card set per group and one pocket guide per student. Pre-fill two real Walnut Road adult roles or help locations. No role-play is needed.

MODEL ONE MOVE - ABOUT 60 SECONDS

Read card 1 and think aloud: 'I can use a short sentence if it feels safe. If not, I can support the person and get adult help.'

1 RUN IT

1

Read the fictional name-joke scenario.

2

Sort numbered cards into four moves.

3

Build a safe response route.

4

Complete the pocket guide; name adult follow-through.

DEBRIEF

Which options are safe in this situation? What must adults do next? How do we know behaviour really changed?

COLLECT / NOTICE

Suggested sort: Interrupt 1-2; Support 3-4; Report 5-6; Repair 7-8. Accept other safe sequences with reasons.

CARE

Offer a private route to an adult. Never invite public disclosures or ask targeted students to teach the class.
