

Truth, Place & Responsibility

Your teacher will open an Indigenous-created source. Look or listen twice. Credit who teaches you.

WHO IS TEACHING US?

Creator, title, and Nation or community

WHAT DID THEY TEACH OR SHOW?

Write or sketch one accurate learning.

WHAT IS STRONG AND LIVING TODAY?

Language, family, land, culture, community, or joy

WHAT DETAIL SUPPORTS YOUR IDEA?

Record exact words, an image detail, or a source moment.

Create a Credited Visual Response

Choose a clear layout. Use only what the source supports. Credit who taught you.

WHAT WE LEARNED

WHAT CONTINUES TODAY

SHOW THE IDEA IN YOUR OWN WAY

CHOOSE A LAYOUT:

☐

THEN / NOW / NEXT

☐

ONE IMAGE + ONE SENTENCE

☐

LISTEN / CONNECT / ACT

Use ordinary scenes, place details, lettering, a timeline, or collage. Do not copy sacred or Nation-specific designs.

ONE NEXT LEARNING ACTION WE CAN COMPLETE

Check-back date: _____

WE LEARNED FROM

Creator / Nation or community:

Title / source:

Teacher Quick Start: Truth, Place & Responsibility

Do not copy this page. Open the source, model one move, then hand out only the student pages needed (1-2).

READY

Open the First Peoples' Map, City of Surrey COSMOS map, and one linked local Nation source. Preview all three for grade fit. Student pages 1-2; art materials.

MODEL ONE MOVE - ABOUT 60 SECONDS

Compare Surrey on the two maps. Then model the local source's creator, one exact detail, and one living strength. Avoid Nation-specific art.

1 RUN IT

1

Compare two maps of the same place.

2

Look/listen to the chosen source twice.

3

Complete the four source boxes.

4

Create, credit, and choose a dated next learning action.

2 OPEN THESE - READY LINKS

First Peoples' Map of B.C.

maps.fpcc.ca

City of Surrey - COSMOS maps

surrey.ca

Katzie First Nation - Who We Are

katzie.ca

DEBRIEF

I learned... I noticed strength in... What should we learn next? When will we check back?

COLLECT / NOTICE

A source-credited visual response and one realistic next learning action with a date.

CARE

Never simulate residential schools or ask Indigenous students to represent a community.