Indigenous voices

First Nations, Métis and Inuit rights and teachings

Name: _____ Date: _____

Book title and author: _____

What is the main idea or key message of the book?

Use a detail from the words or pictures.

Draw a picture or symbol that represents the theme in this story.

Add a short label or caption to show its meaning.

Why should we learn about this topic?

Explain what the book helped you understand.

Make a connection to the book.

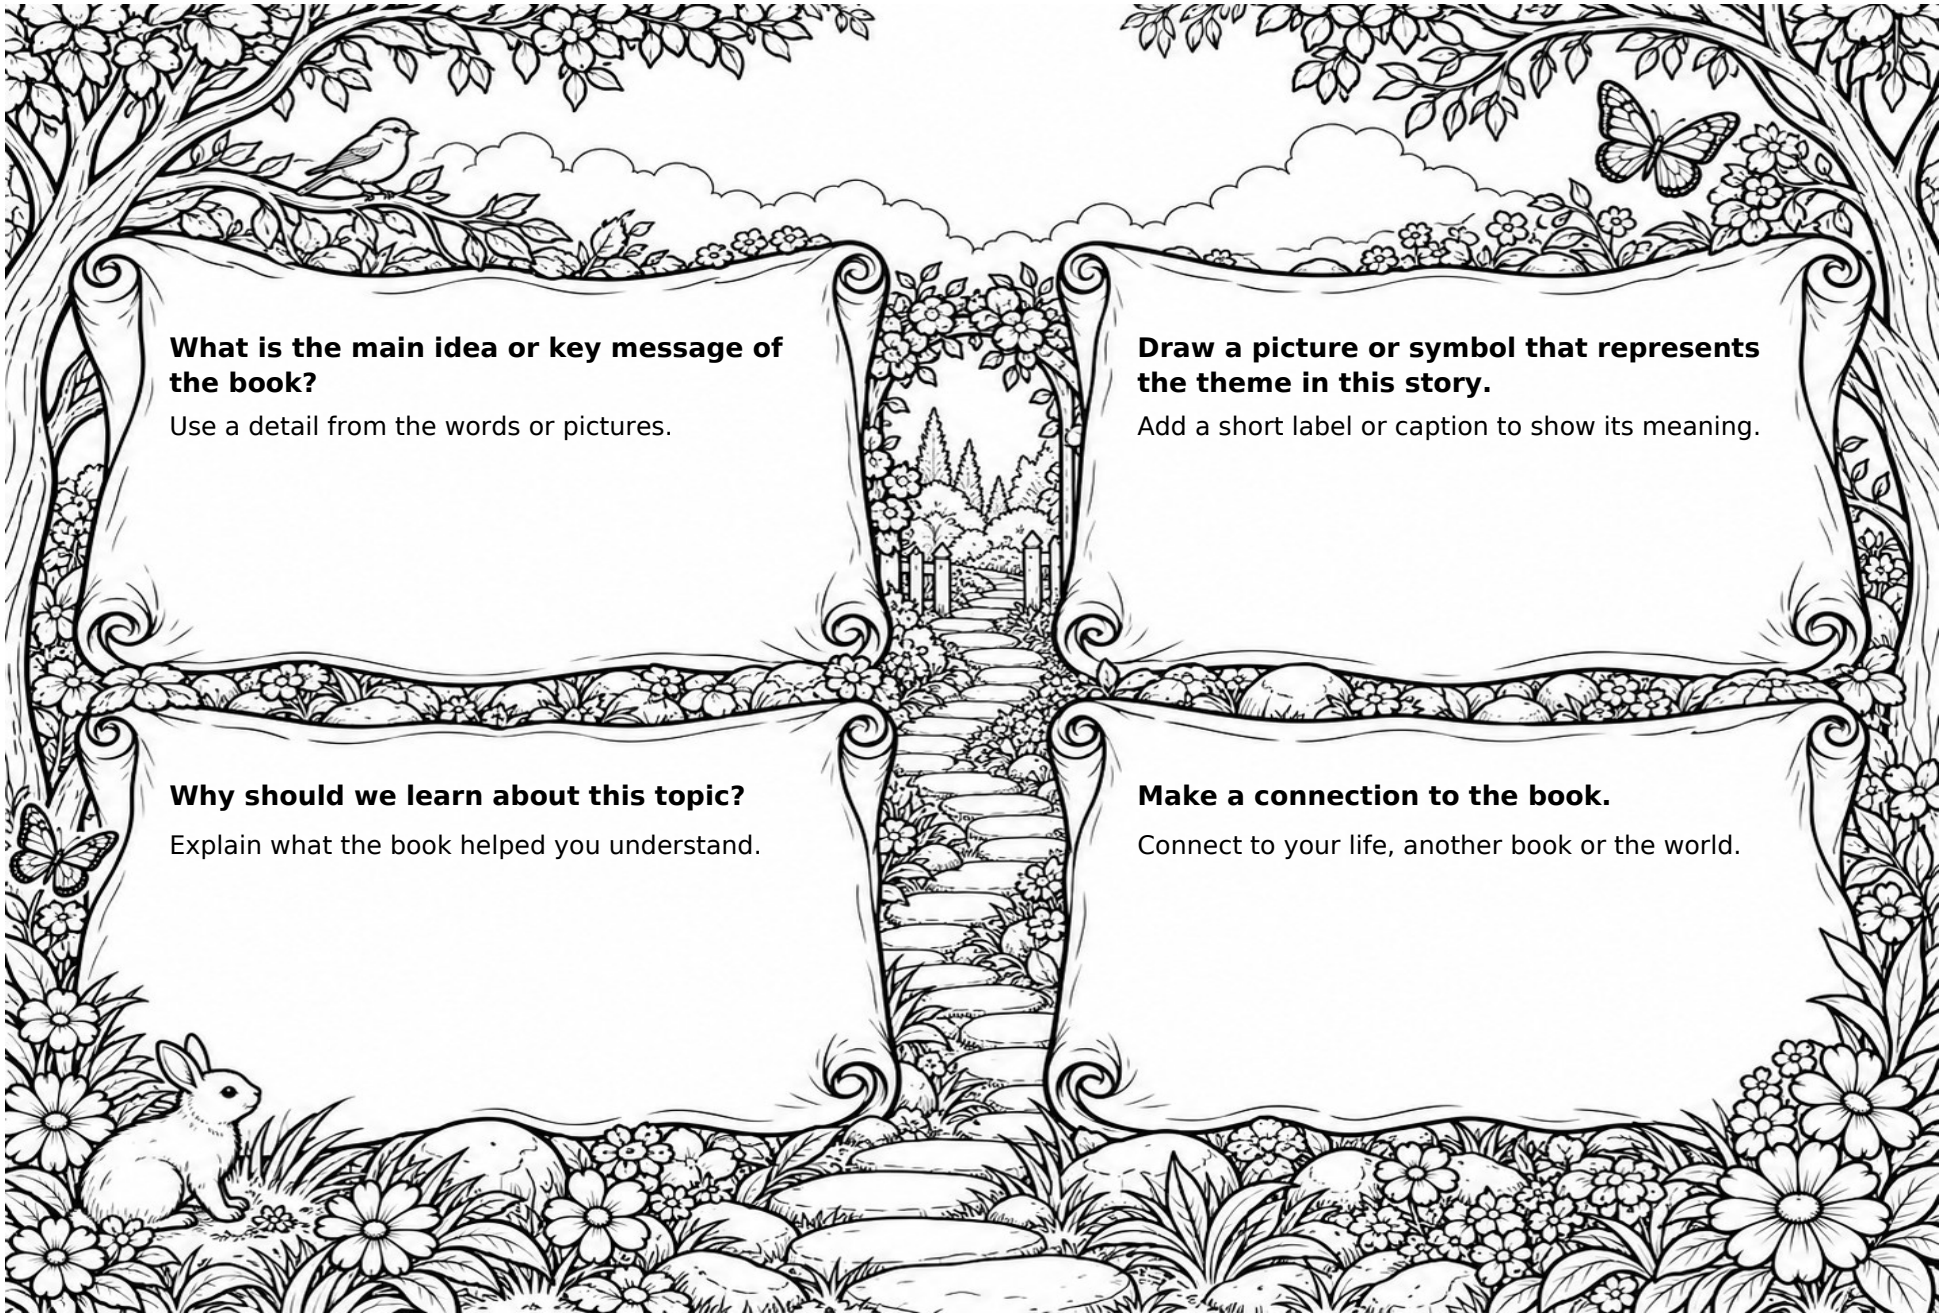

Connect to your life, another book or the world.

Our shared Earth

Access to nature, sustainability and our shared future

Name: _____ Date: _____

Book title and author: _____

What is the main idea or key message of the book?

Use a detail from the words or pictures.

Draw a picture or symbol that represents the theme in this story.

Add a short label or caption to show its meaning.

Why should we learn about this topic?

Explain what the book helped you understand.

Make a connection to the book.

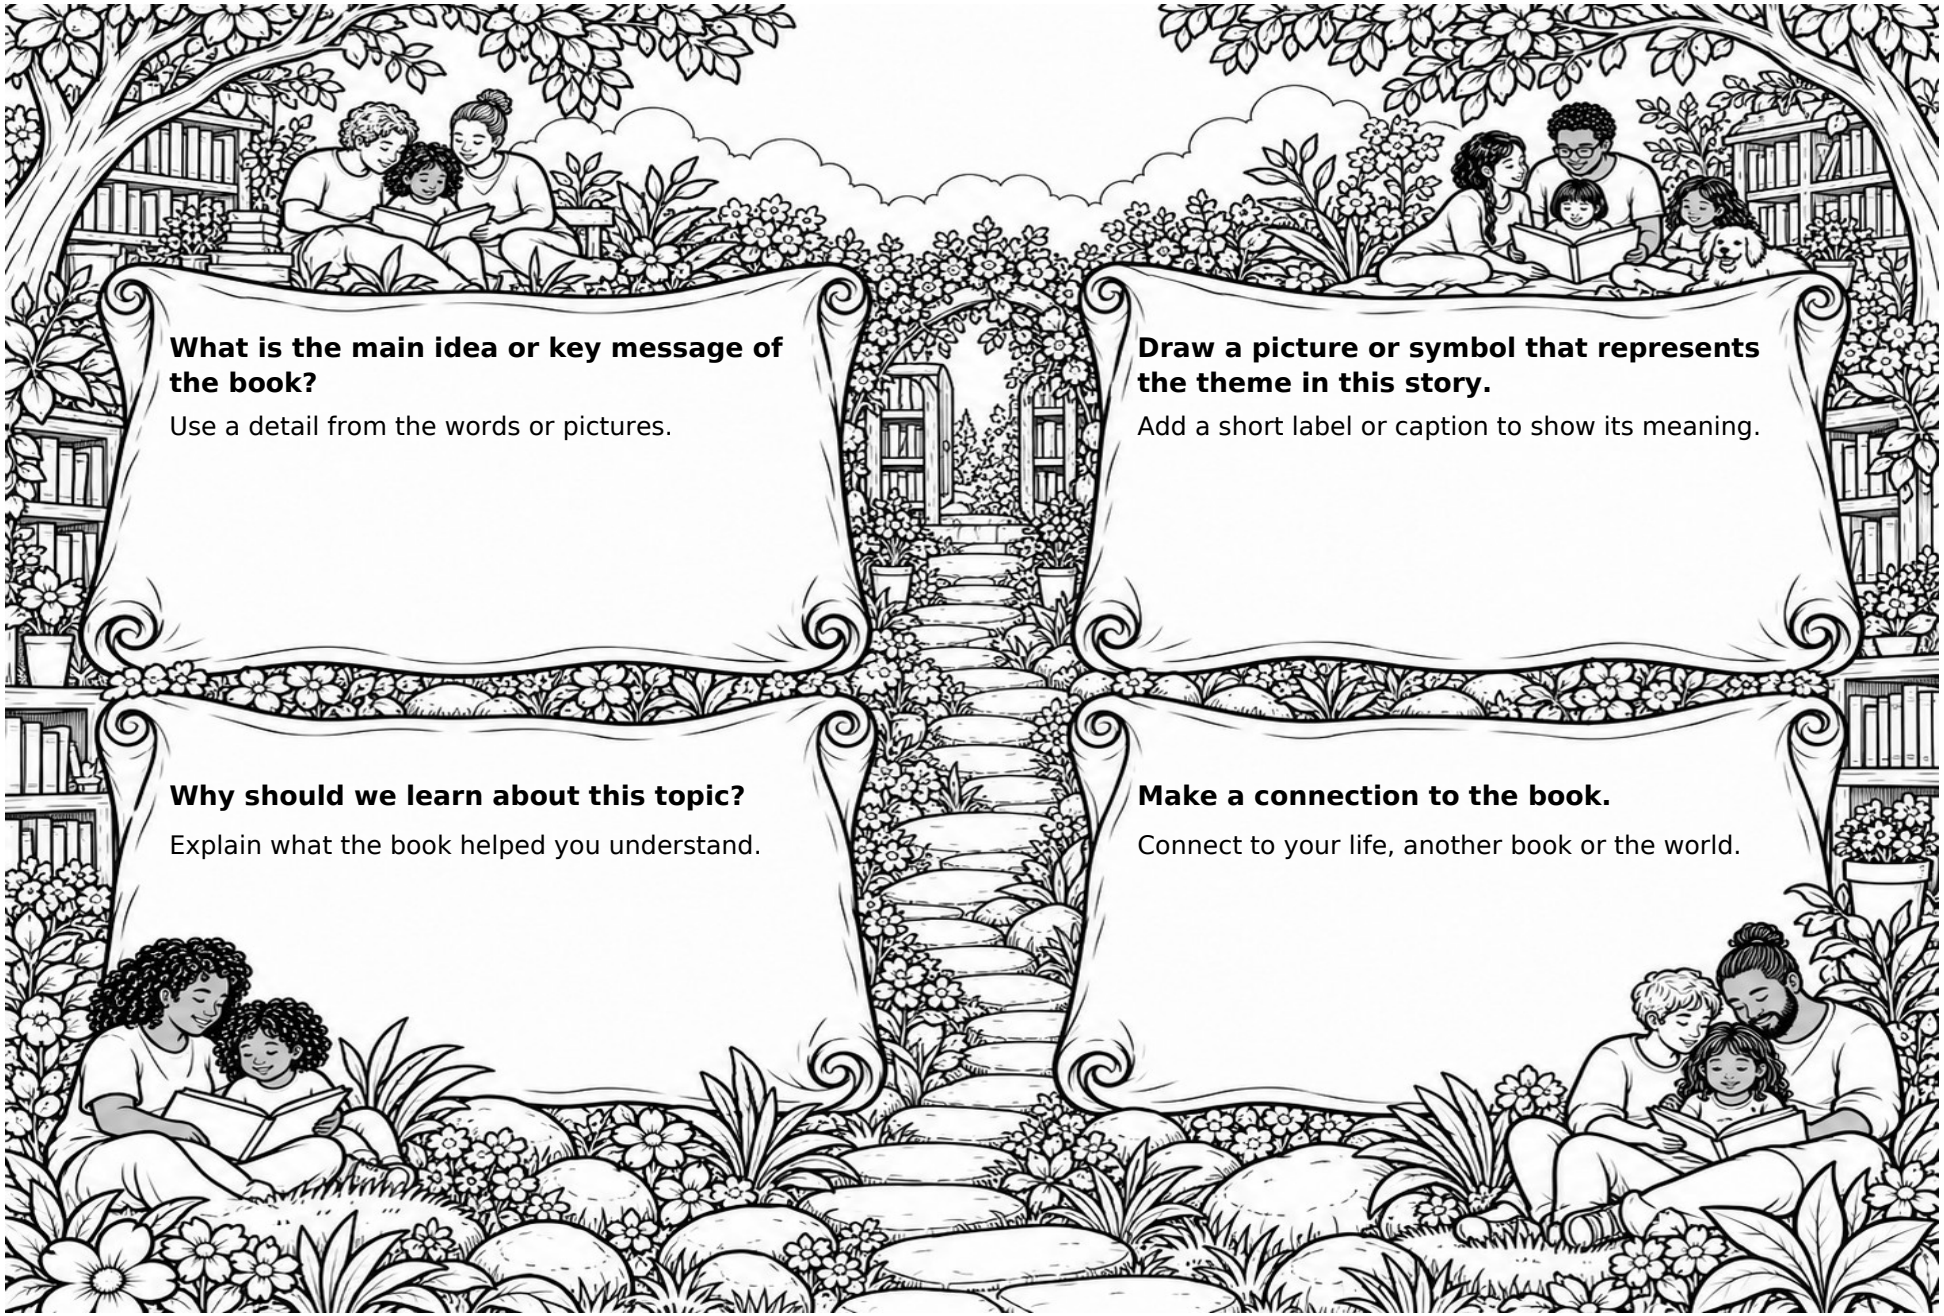

Connect to your life, another book or the world.

Gender, identity and families

LGBTQ2S+ voices, belonging and equal rights

Name: _____ Date: _____

Book title and author: _____

What is the main idea or key message of the book?

Use a detail from the words or pictures.

Draw a picture or symbol that represents the theme in this story.

Add a short label or caption to show its meaning.

Why should we learn about this topic?

Explain what the book helped you understand.

Make a connection to the book.

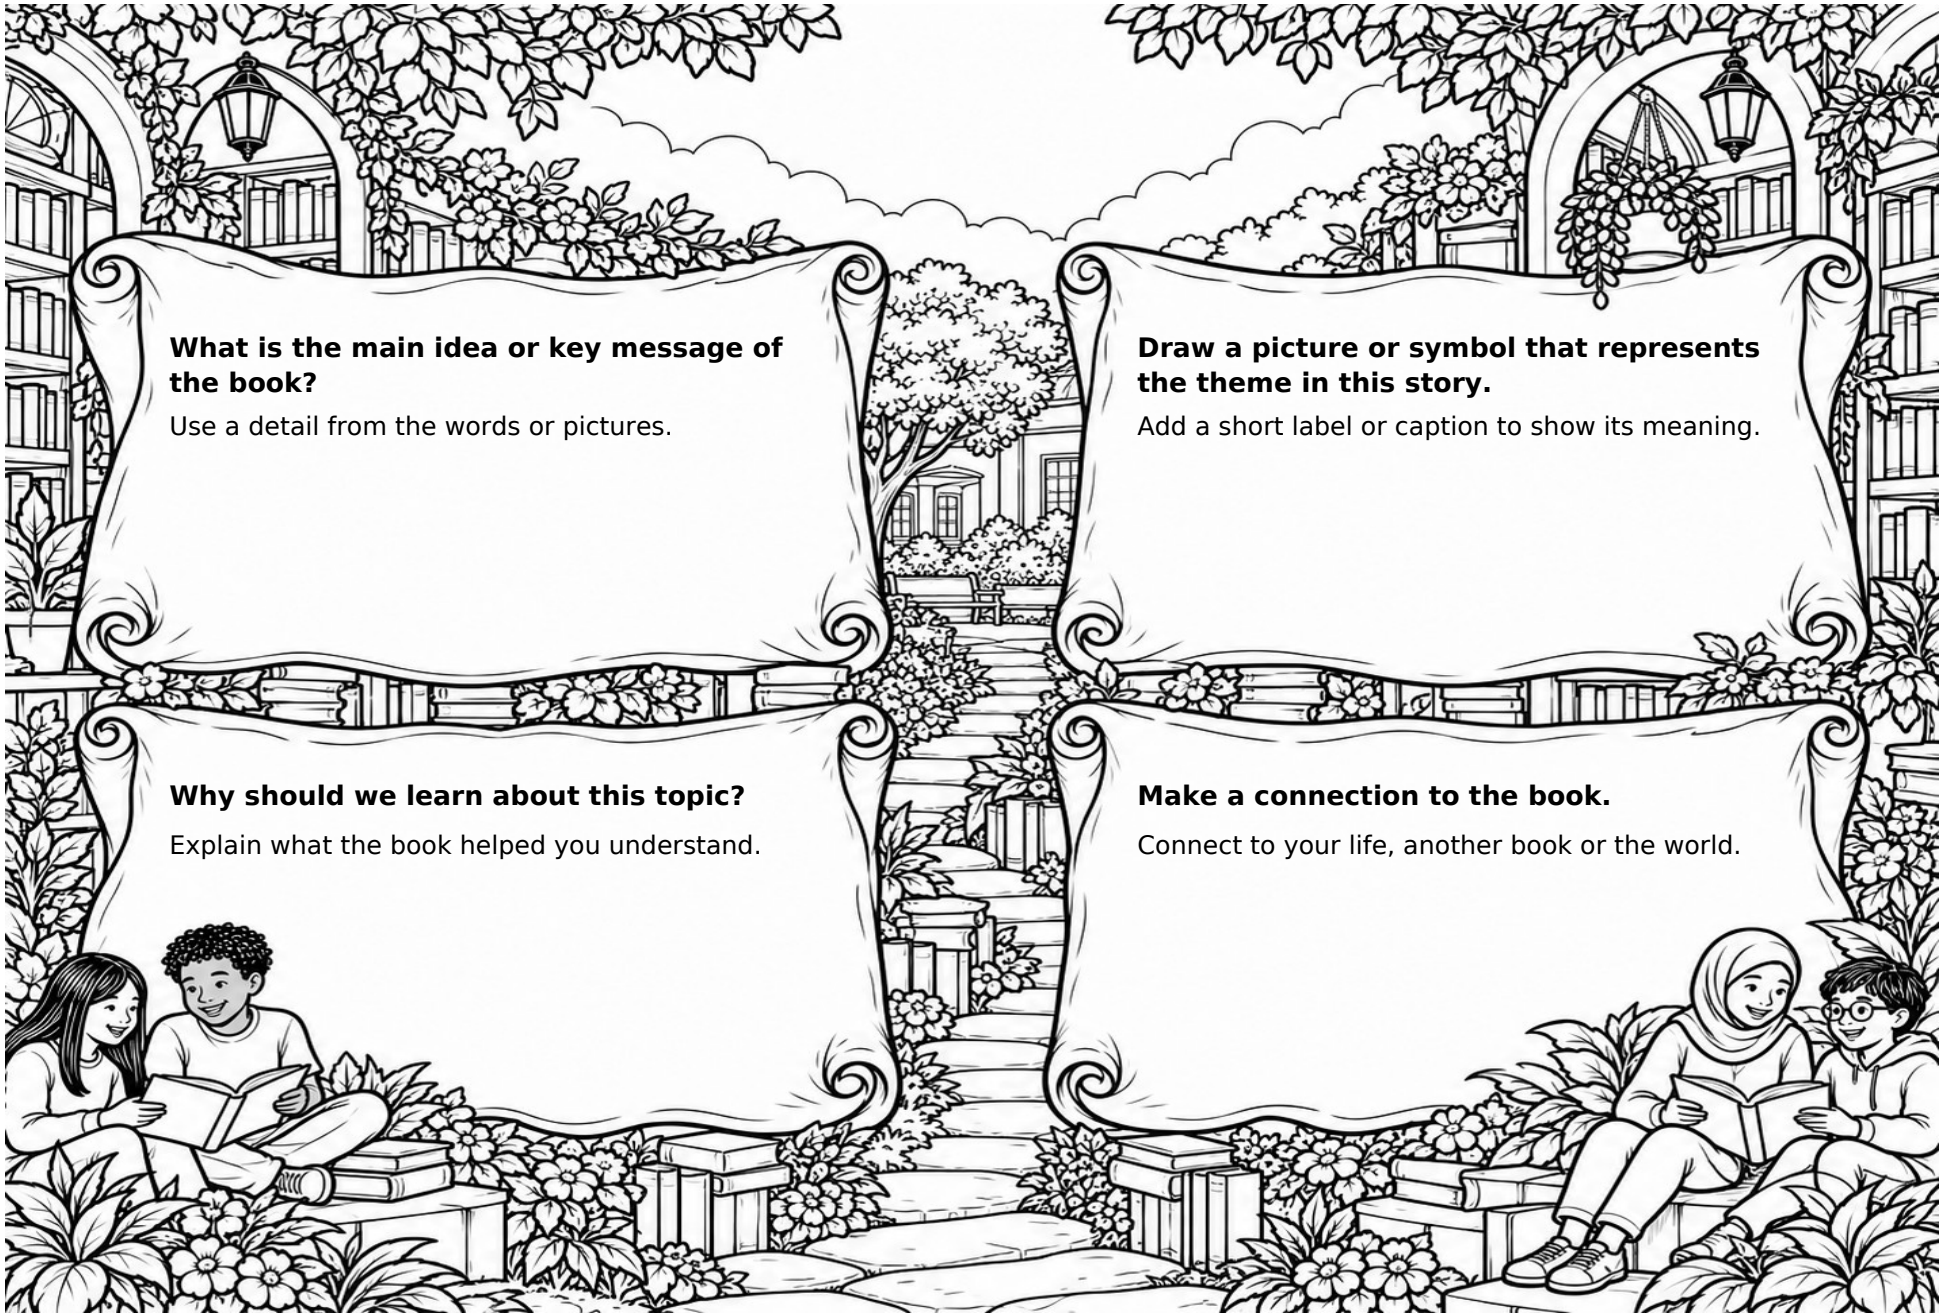

Connect to your life, another book or the world.

Languages, cultures and communities

Diversity in Canada and around the world

Name: _____ Date: _____

Book title and author: _____

What is the main idea or key message of the book?

Use a detail from the words or pictures.

Draw a picture or symbol that represents the theme in this story.

Add a short label or caption to show its meaning.

Why should we learn about this topic?

Explain what the book helped you understand.

Make a connection to the book.

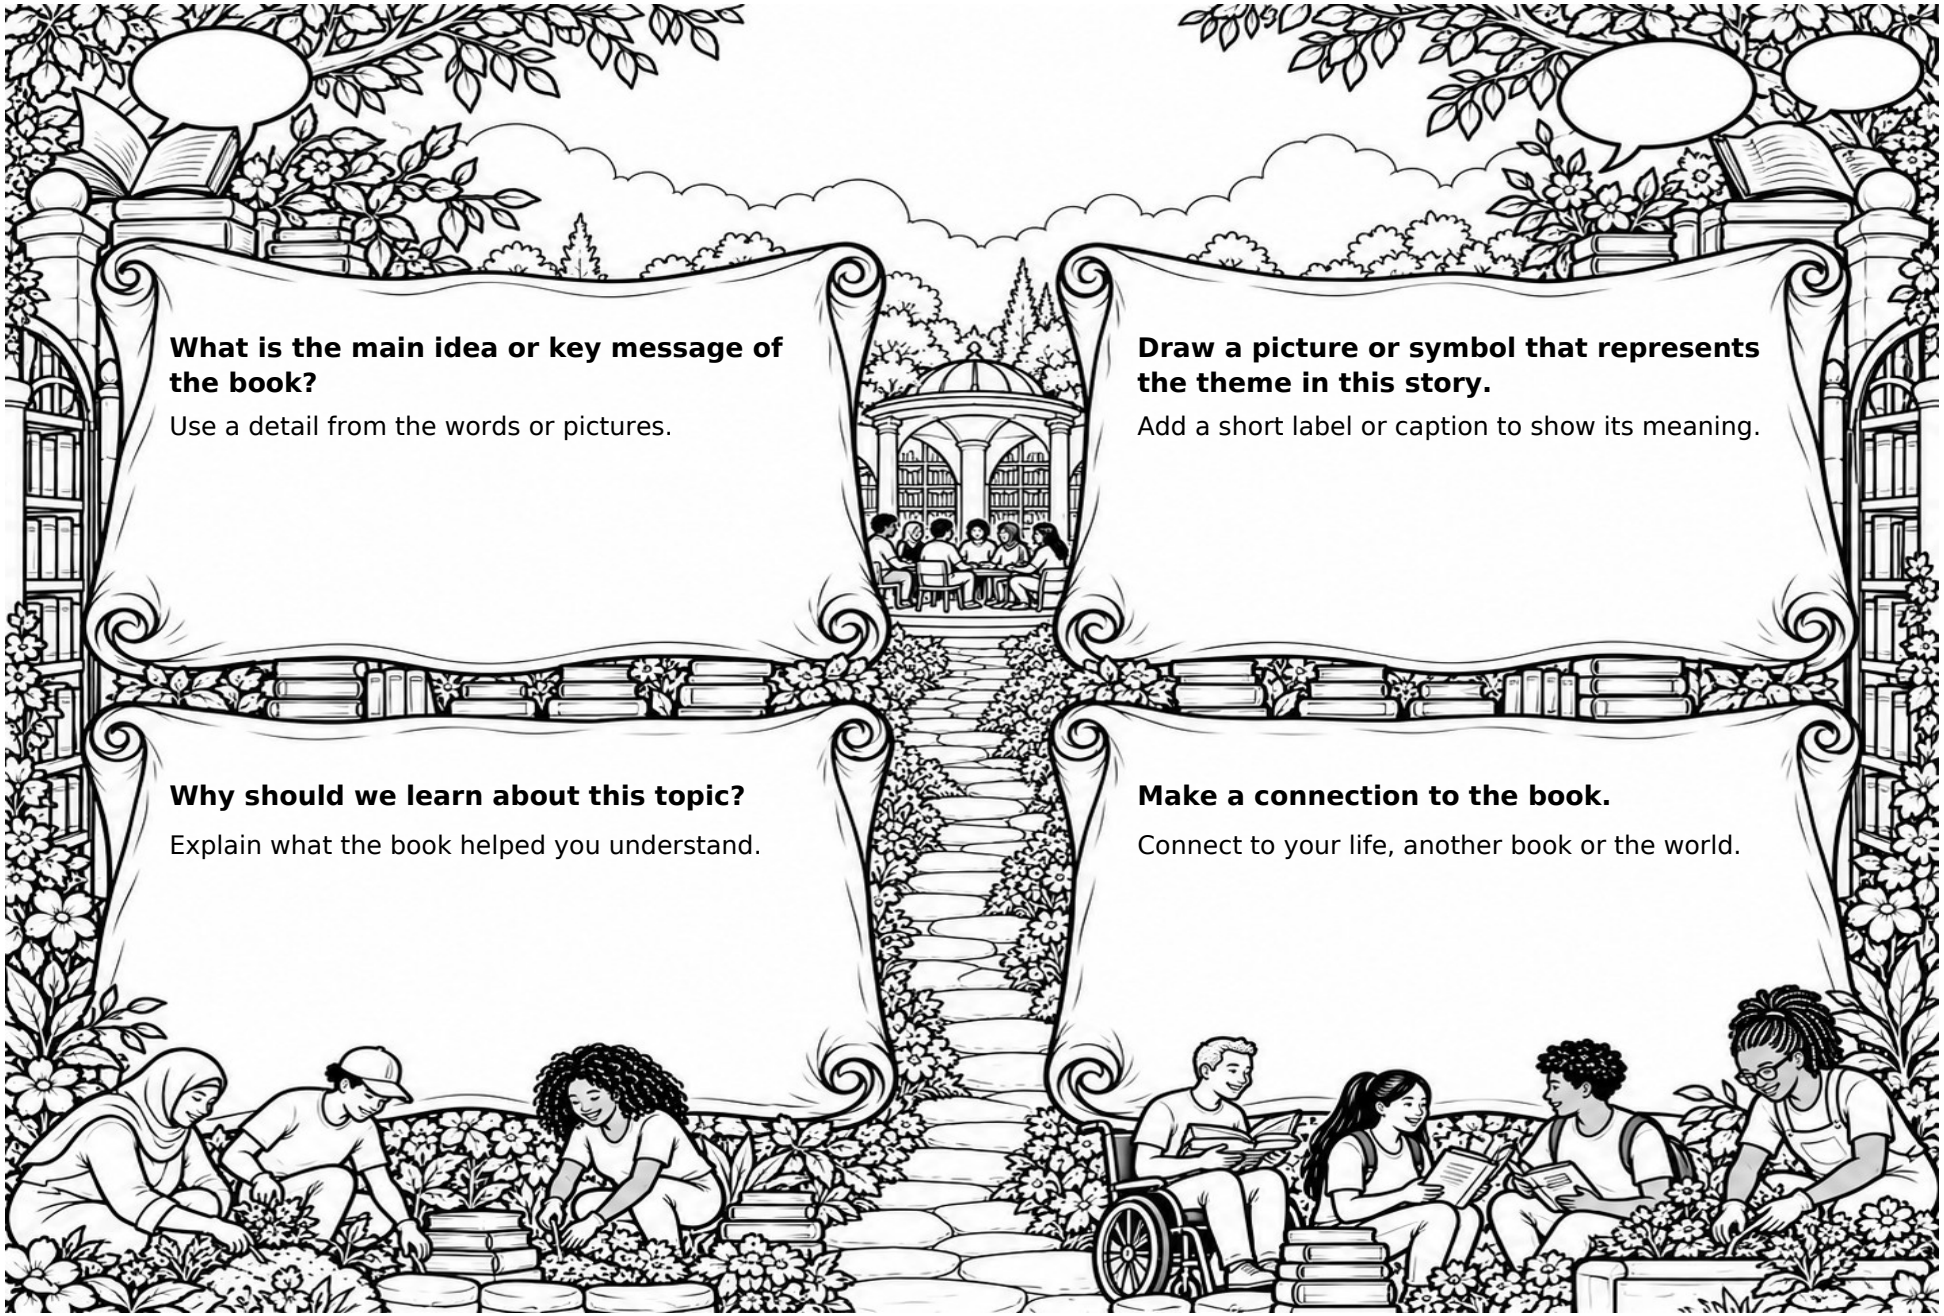

Connect to your life, another book or the world.

Racism, discrimination and change

Historical inequities, resistance and equal rights

Name: _____ Date: _____

Book title and author: _____

What is the main idea or key message of the book?

Use a detail from the words or pictures.

Draw a picture or symbol that represents the theme in this story.

Add a short label or caption to show its meaning.

Why should we learn about this topic?

Explain what the book helped you understand.

Make a connection to the book.

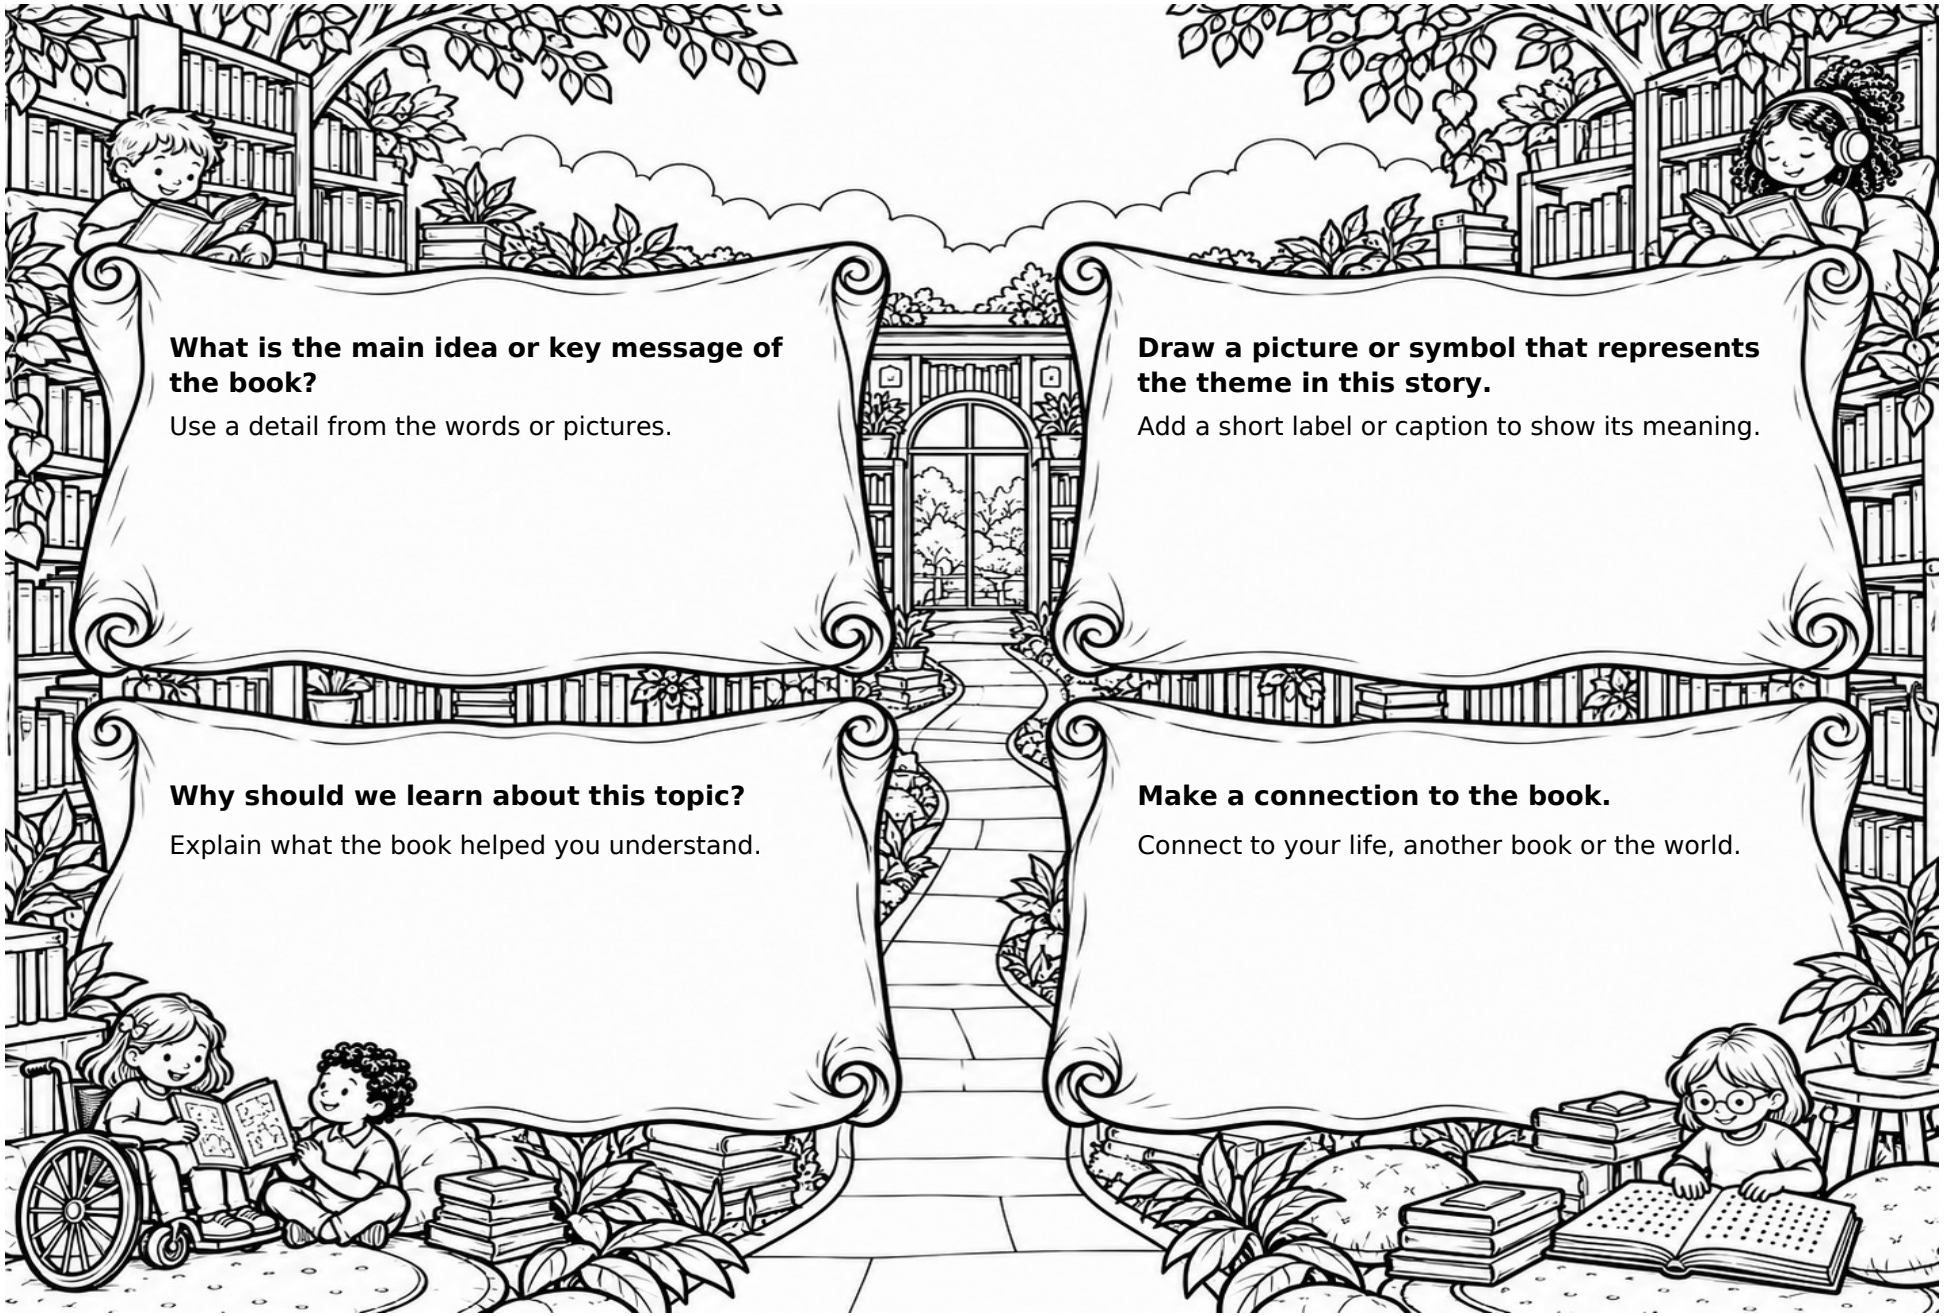

Connect to your life, another book or the world.

Accessibility, inclusion and equality

Disability, different needs and full participation

Name: _____ Date: _____

Book title and author: _____

What is the main idea or key message of the book?

Use a detail from the words or pictures.

Draw a picture or symbol that represents the theme in this story.

Add a short label or caption to show its meaning.

Why should we learn about this topic?

Explain what the book helped you understand.

Make a connection to the book.

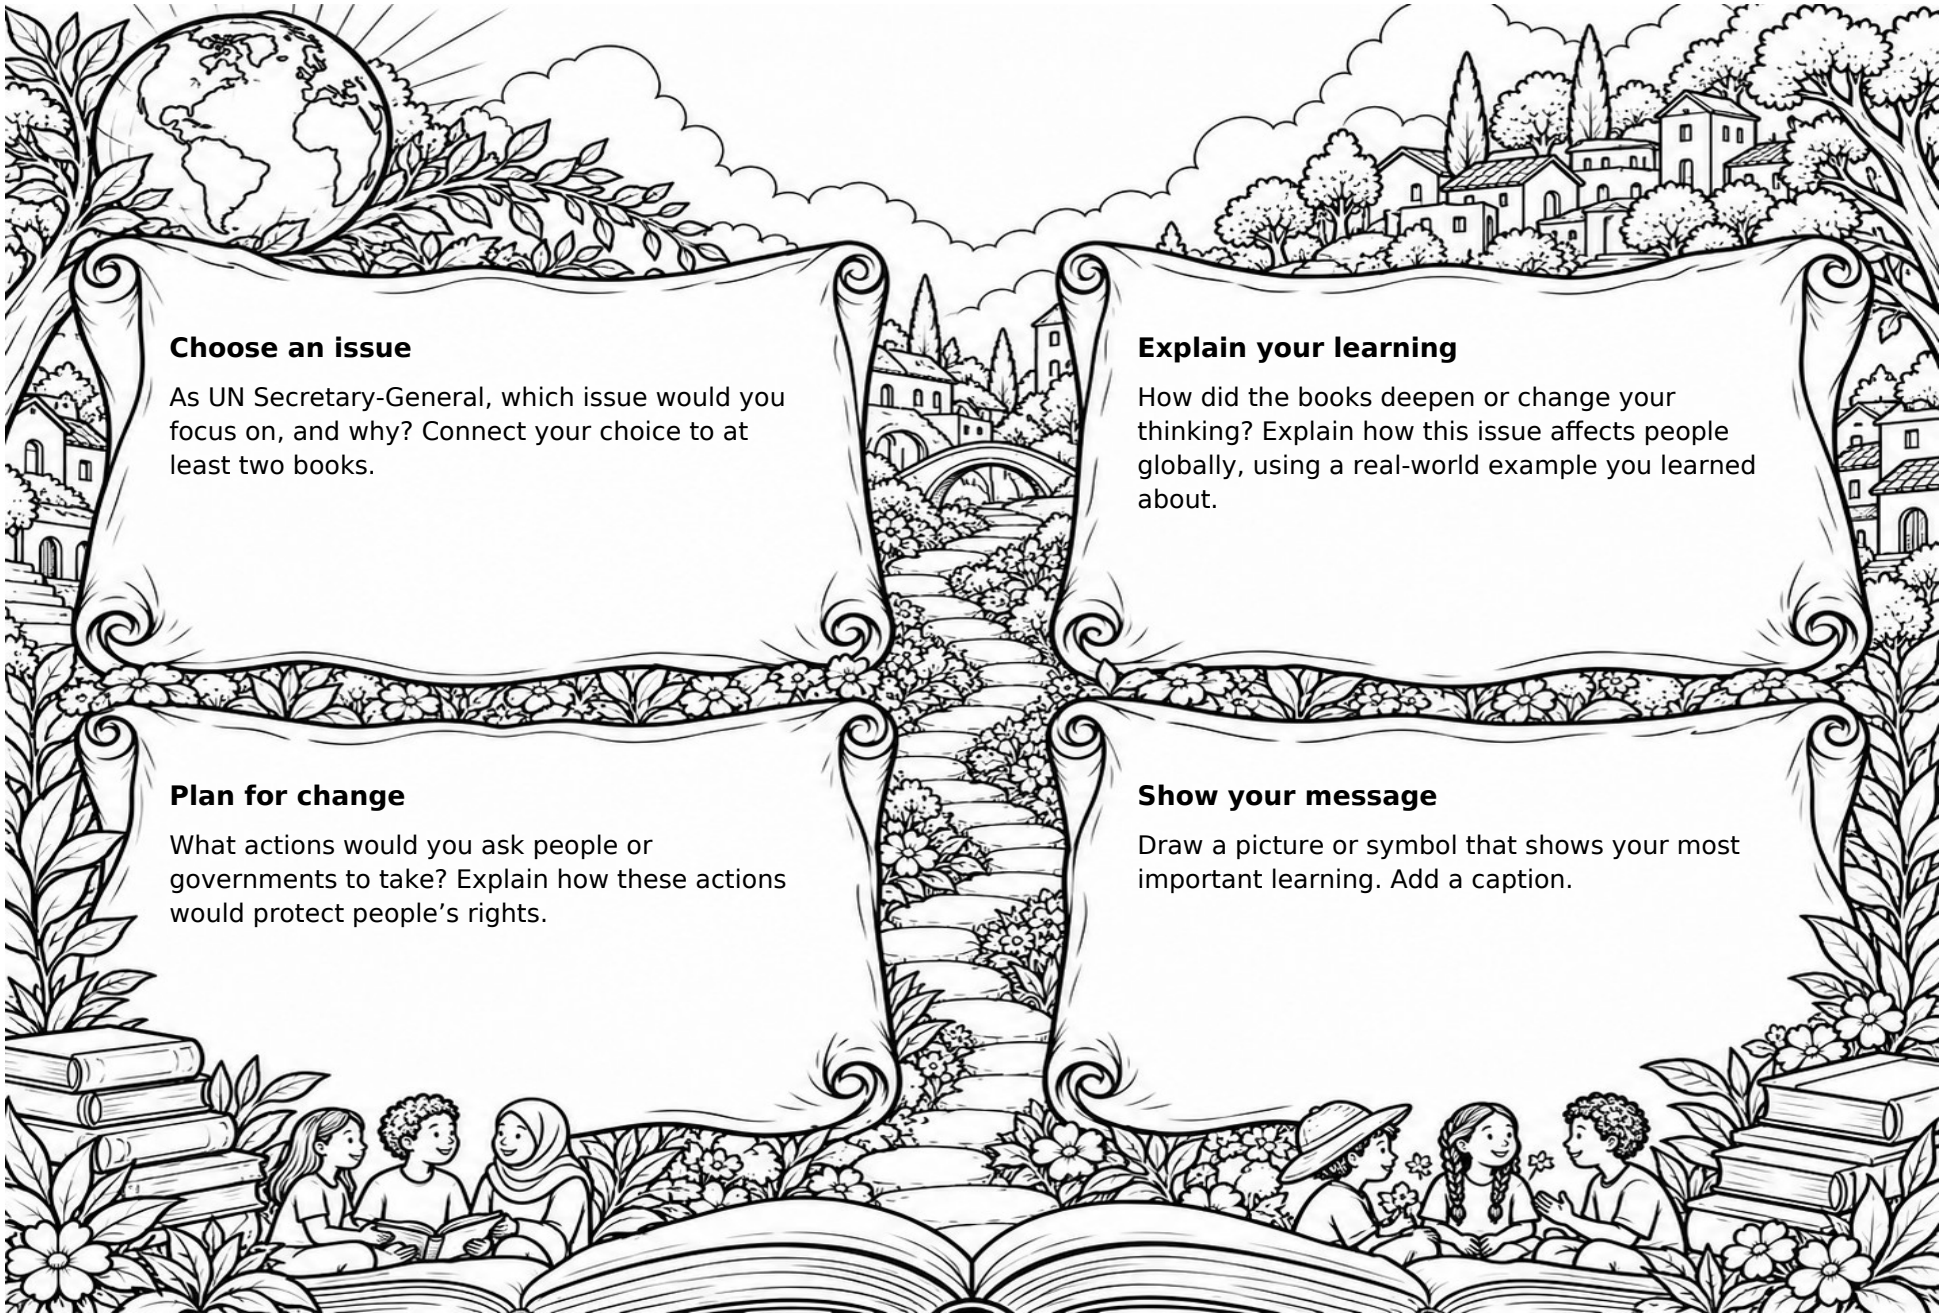

Connect to your life, another book or the world.

What I learned and what we can change

Final learning and United Nations reflection

Name: _____ Date: _____

Books I am connecting: _____

Choose an issue

As UN Secretary-General, which issue would you focus on, and why? Connect your choice to at least two books.

Explain your learning

How did the books deepen or change your thinking? Explain how this issue affects people globally, using a real-world example you learned about.

Plan for change

What actions would you ask people or governments to take? Explain how these actions would protect people’s rights.

Show your message

Draw a picture or symbol that shows your most important learning. Add a caption.

Continue your response

Name: _____ Date: _____

Book or topic: _____

Question I am continuing: _____

Use another copy whenever you need more writing space.